Comments Hello dear CAI am Total War player for many years. Our work got into hands of many players, so all who previously played anything from Radius collection know exactly what to expect. Rebalanced, reworked, polished and enhanced original game based on same setting with tons of highest quality custom made units and further additions and content. If you like our work, consider a small donation which gives you access to special rewards. This time for Total War: Rome 2!Largest Total War: Rome 2 Overhaul mod. To offer more variety and options how to play your favourite TW games. Contains changes in almost every part of the game. However, the other languages will need the UPC Project to be installed in order to show the names of the Custom Units properly. Full package of all i released till today.Complete game overhaul mod, which offers to players big changes in campaign AI, diplomacy, land and naval battles, adds new units, new abilities, changes buildings, re-balances all unit stats and costs, reworks experience system and much more.Graphics below are links, feel free to click on them!As the only TW modding team in the history that covers these games since Shogun 2, making entire reworkings and rebalancing of most game mechanics, features and adding tons of new high-quality units. Most modders have patreon but never request money from people. [www.patreon.com]Mods Included in Radius Total War Rome 2Each of these mods can be already their own huge overhaul, because each of them do thousands of edits in the game's files and changes the game in almost every aspect. Thats why I Tolerate what's going on in the modding scene. Support should be voluntary, not for the threat. Love your games! -2 Å - RADIUS TOTAL WAR MOD - ANNIVERSARY EDITION - Part 1tall 4 parts are required! General Visa - From the award-winning team and and creators of the most signed mods in the Steam Workshop for Games TW comes another great modification. Your help will keep going, thank you! Our mods take hundreds of hours and with your precious feedback and support, the Radius team will continue to bring some of the highest quality mods in the Steam Workshop. If you are a modder and wish to host your files in GameWatcher, please use ours. There are also more than 1500 units added in all facilities, with exclusive aer (recruitment area) for many units.Batles are revised, rebaluated units, reworked, and much more. It changes a lot on the path of the graphics, just gameplay. These textures are historically accurate and have great diversity between the textures units. These textures are based on historically accurate sources. These textures are based out of historical sources, and presents a new look for the armor, helmets and shields. This makes the generals unique in comparison with regular soldiers. In Vanilla Rome II, the generals seemed equal to regular soldiers. Now generals opinion unique in comparison with the Normal Soldiers.In Vanilla Rome II, all generals seemed regular soldiers, this mod changes that. This is the B verse that picks up the Hoplites from the Classical Age. We use cookies to allow you to OG and set the preferences of your site. For proof just read any of your patreon posts . [www.paypal.me] Another support option is directly via PayPal. Your payment of 100% to play for the product that is not his. I'm not an enemy of your mods, but a person can not require money Things that are not his and just based on your game. All these are part of a great mod reshaping the Radius Total War Mod.And much more than just these!Multi-language supportLanguage information: This mod shows the names of all custom units only if it is played in the English version of the game (language can be switched on Steam). I think you, as a company, should do something with it. I don't usually use mods, but thing Radius is doing lately is just outrageous. Especially that you support his work with Early Access. Details, download and installation instructions for the Total War Rome 2 Unit Pack Compatibility (UPC) Project [www.twcenter.net]Mod Details - IMPORTANT: Please read all here carefully [www.patreon.com]Resources and Social MediaSpecial thanks to The Radius Total War Modding Team[www.twcenter.net]To CA for the Rome II Total War game, It's Valve for the Steam Workshop, and the community for their help in our efforts to make this mod a reality. For Kaisa and Wolfman for Video Promo made by Kaisa and WolfmanFor Swiss Halberdier for another UPC language project and for being a great friend for many years!For all who have helped us, it has provided excellent textures and supported us all these years! Also to other modders for their beautiful work and dedication, many great YouTubers, our Patrons donors, members of our team, and kind words from so many people who keep us going every day! I am also an active member of the TW community. community.

Rome; Rome Rome will rule the world. It is her destiny and always has been. Claiming a line of descent back to Hercules, Romans are not lacking in pride. Romans are not lacking in fierceness: their city was founded by Romulus and Remus, twins raised by a wolf.
